Old Town Farm

Weddings, anniversaries, workshops, retreats...they're all about memories. An event at Old Town Farm makes those memories vivid and lasting. Under the trees or in the red barn, your family and friends will be surrounded by an island of natural serenity in the heart of the city. Horses, flowers, vegetables, pastures, trees...and room for an extensive guest list...all part of a most memorable event at Old Town Farm.

Old Town Farm is a rustic wedding ceremony and reception venue located in Albuquerque, New Mexico. This rural refuge in the heart of a bustling city is a great option for newly-engaged couples who are looking to have either an outdoor or indoor barn wedding. For more than 40 years, Old Town Farm has been providing a country casual space at an affordable cost. What was once a huge, 18 stall barn is now a rustic event space that is perfect for entertaining guests and celebrating life's happiest moments. There, you can find a number of gorgeous fruits and veggies, as well as eggs and even the venue's very own bee farm. The grounds of Old Town Farm offer both indoor and outdoor event space settings. The front pasture is a great space for a larger outdoor ceremony, while the gazebo and surrounding lawn is an ideal spot for a smaller, more intimate gathering of your closest family and friends. In total, the four event spaces at Old Town Farm have a maximum capacity of about 175 people. There are a number of settings to choose from, including uncovered and covered outdoor spaces, as well as indoor areas.

More than 135 years ago, nuns walked the halls of El Zócalo (The meeting place) when it was first constructed in 1874. The convent was a gathering place where people in Bernalillo came to meet, learn, and exchange ideas. El Zócalo is truly a meeting place of historic proportions—a refurbished 135-year-old convent with up-to-date amenities and steeped in history.

Almost 2,400 square feet of meeting space embraced in thick adobe walls and brick floors, as well as outdoor and indoor spaces to meet event space needs. The convent walls nestle an interior courtyard, with fountains and grassy areas and the sweeping views of the Sandia's, provides a stunning focal point for any wedding. With friendly staff, easy planning, and elegant scenery, El Zócalo Plaza and Event Center is a great place for any party or get together. With its thick adobe walls and brick floors warmly refurbished, the 1874 convent is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The courtyard outside, with its fountains and grassy areas, provides a focal point for the building. Accommodates 175 guests.
